Astárte Model Search - Pg 2

Rules and Important Stuff You Need to Know

Here's what we're looking for: Class, elegance, personality, charm, sex appeal, and ability to interpret music and move to the beat gracefully, all wrapped up in a curvaceous package topped with a gorgeous smile! Astárte models must convey warmth, friendliness, enthusiasm, sparkle, and approachability on the runway; we like a powerful, confident attitude that doesn't take itself too seriously. Astárte models are paid with merchandise credit, so we hope you like our clothes! We tend to think of our models as family; Astárte has always been about sisterhood and having fun and feeling good about yourself, while still being professional in every aspect. Ice queens and prima donna-types would not be happy here. We recognize this is a team effort and for the past 16 years, Astárte has had a reputation for putting on the best plus-size fashion shows anywhere. If all of this sounds like you, we'd love to have you join us! Good luck!

1. If you are signed with a modeling agency, or plan to be soon, please do not apply, as we cannot use you. We appreciate your interest. Thanks!
2. The Astárte Model Search is open to female-born U.S. residents, age 25 and up. Minimum height requirement is 5'4"; proportionate size 14 to 28. Minimum personality requirement is MUCH higher!
3. There is NO fee to apply and we will keep your application on file, so that if you are not chosen at his time (as openings are limited), we will be able to stay in touch with you. Please be sure that your application is printed legibly. Our eyesight is not what it used to be.
4. If you've brought a headshot and/or full body shot, we'd love to see it. We may take our own shots of you, though, for our files, so a few weeks from now we'll have a clearer idea of just what "gorgeous redhead!" in our Comments section really means.
5. By signing below AND on your application (attached), you are acknowledging that any photographs we may take of you now or into perpetuity are the sole copyright property of Astárte/woman by design. However, we are more than happy to share copies for your book.
6. We are currently searching for models for our in-store fashion shows (first Saturday of each month) and for our website photo shoots, and potentially for future big runway shows. Models must be willing to be available for fittings, if necessary. We need BOTH excellent print models and great runway models, so if you aren't right for one, you may be for the other. If we do a big runway show, we'll select the best as our big Astarte runway shows are more "show" than fashion; rehearsals are required.
7. If you pass this Open Call, we will ask you to model in a photo shoot and/or an in-store Saturday show as your real-world audition.

By signing below, you acknowledge you've read and agree to abide by these rules.
